Residential treatment at Mount Regis Center is a comprehensive experience that includes a variety of therapeutic activities. Your progress in our residential program will be guided by a personalized treatment plan that is based upon a thorough assessment of your strengths, needs, and goals. Your care will be provided by a multidisciplinary team of experienced professionals. Common elements that may be a part of your personalized plan include medication management services, individual therapy, various forms of group therapy, family therapy, and several experiential therapies. Typical length of stay in our residential program is 14 to 21 days, though the duration of your time in this program will be based upon your needs and progress. Following residential treatment, you may transition out of our care, or step down to our partial hospitalization program (PHP) or our intensive outpatient program (IOP). Our partial hospitalization program can be an ideal level of care for men and women who can benefit from step-down support following the completion of residential treatment. PHP is also an excellent option for individuals who need structured, intensive services but do not need round-the-clock monitoring. While you are in PHP with us, you will complete a full day of treatment each weekday (Mondays through Fridays). In the evenings and on weekends, you will return home or to an alternative residence. Thus, you can begin to practice your new skills and strategies in a real-world environment, while still benefiting from considerable support during each treatment day. Group therapy is the main means of treatment in PHP, but you will also have the opportunity to participate in family therapy sessions as well as various forms of experiential therapy. Typical length of stay in PHP is 10 to 14 days. After completing PHP, you may step down to our intensive outpatient program (IOP) or transition out of care.

Residential substance abuse treatment for men and women. The Life Center of Galax is committed to offering comprehensive addiction and dual diagnosis services to men and women who choose to begin their recovery with us. Galax patients benefit from personalized services that are provided by a multi-disciplinary treatment team of experienced professionals. Our treatment team includes: a medical director certified by the American Society of Addiction Medicine; a board certified psychiatrist; physician assistants and nurse practitioners; certified and licensed counselors; and 24 hour nursing with both RN's and LPN's.

We believe the most effective treatment addresses the emotional, physical, and spiritual aspects of addiction. This holistic approach provides patients with a solid foundation upon which to begin long-term recovery.

We understand that recovery is a lifelong experience, and our program includes an introduction to Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) and Narcotics Anonymous (NA), as well as Celebrate Recovery, a Christian based recovery meeting.

The addiction rehab center is designed to treat the individual with the most appropriate treatment modality. These modalities include inpatient medical detoxification and stabilization to abstinence; administration of medication (Methadone or Buprenorphine) for continuance in an outpatient maintenance program; or the utilization of Vivitrol (seven to ten days after detox) for sustained recovery. Also, for the men and women of Virginia who are currently participating in an outpatient medication assisted program (Methadone or Buprenorphine) but may require a more intensive program or detoxification from other drugs, our addiction rehab center allows the patient to transition into inpatient and return to their outpatient provider upon discharge. We believe the most effective rehab addresses not only the medical needs of our patients, but also the emotional, physical, and spiritual aspects of addiction. This holistic approach provides patients with a solid foundation upon which to begin long-term recovery.

Of those with a history of drug abuse or dependence, 59% also experienced a mental disorder. Untreated mental health problems can lead to addiction when alcohol or other drugs were used to deal with symptoms just as anxiety and depression may develop because of stress from broken relationships, lost employments, and other situations directly related to a drug-using lifestyle. U-Turn For Christ

utfctn@gmail.com

Residential faith based treatment for substance abuse. Offers separate men and women's ranch facilities.

The Phase 1 of the ministry requires a minimum two-month commitment. Here the men are involved in a daily regiment consisting of morning devotions, daily chores, outdoor keep of the ranch, evening Bible study, and nightly personal devotion time. During these two months, the men can expect a lot of hard work. It is here that the men of the ranch partake in the outdoor keep of the ranch, do pickups for thrift stores, keep the roads clean, and help people in the community. In addition, men can expect a lot of personal time with Bible study. The only written material that is allowed in Phase 1 is the Bible.

Phase 2 is a little different. It requires an additional six-month commitment. The Phase 2 aspect of this ministry requires the enrollee to search and obtain a job in the community and provide compensation for living at the ranch. During this time, participants move into a Phase 2 home. With this, they acquire more freedom, but also more responsibility, as well. Accountability is very important, and although a man will be out in the world holding a job, he will be required to attend all Bible studies and church services.

Mount Rogers Community Services Board provides a wide array of community services for individuals with mental health, intellectual and developmental disabilities, and substance use disorders. All services include the use of person-centered planning and embrace concepts of self-determination, empowerment, and recovery as core principles in supporting individuals to achieve their highest possible level of participation in work, relationships, and all aspects of community life. Serves Bland, Wythe, Smyth, Grayson and Carroll counties. Services Include:

Counseling Centers

There are four full time counseling centers, which are located in Marion, Wytheville and Galax with a satellite center in Independence. Office hours are weekdays 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m. with evening hours available upon request. Anyone may make a referral for services by calling the center in your area. Each referral is individually assessed for appropriate services. Once this is completed, the individual will then be given an appointment for orientation to complete various forms and a financial agreement. The individual will then be given an appointment with his or her service provider. All Third Party Insurance, Medicaid, and Medicare are accepted. Fees are based on a sliding scale dependent upon household income and the number of people that are supported by the income. Counseling is a creative problem solving process that requires honesty and permission to think, say, and feel anything in order to create choices and new ways to cope with seemingly impossible to solve situations. It means taking risks on one's own behalf. Confidentiality is therefore highly valued and honored. Counseling Centers: Wythe/Bland (276) 223-3202; Smyth (276) 783-8185; Fernwood (276) 238-9700

Emergency Services

Emergency Services is a 24-hour program that provides intervention, consultation and assessment services to individuals experiencing a behavioral health, substance abuse or developmental disability with Crisis Certified Prescreening Counselors, who are skilled in the assessment and treatment of these disorders, will provide an independent examination of the individual in crisis and seek to obtain relevant information from collateral sources in order to make decisions and provide recommendations based on the least restrictive alternative. The assessment will determine whether the individual meets the Commonwealth's criteria for temporary detention order based on evidence readily available and if any less restrictive alternatives exist and the goal will be recovery focused and individuals will be empowered to develop their own plan of recovery. Depending on the assessment findings, an individual would be referred and encouraged to seek treatment and stabilization on an out-patient basis, seek voluntary treatment in a residential crisis stabilization program or inpatient treatment in a hospital. A recommendation could be made to the local magistrate for a temporary detention order seeking inpatient hospitalization. Assessments are opportunities to educate individuals about the resources available to them throughout the region or state.

Outpatient services specifically designed for individuals seeking substance abuse treatment. Individuals who are given priority admission to services include: persons struggling with opioid use, women, and persons struggling with IV drug use.

Substance Abuse & Addiction

Addiction is the persistent, compulsive use of a mood altering substance or behavior which causes harm to many aspects of an individual's life. It is chronic (long term), progressive (gets worse over time), and prone to relapse periods. Many experts now consider addiction to be a brain disease: a condition caused by persistent changes in brain structure and function. While this brain disease does not remove responsibility for behavior and choices, it does help explain why many addicts cannot stop using drugs by sheer force of will alone. Although the initial decision to take drugs is voluntary for most people, the brain changes that occur over time challenge an addicted person's self-control and hamper his or her ability to resist intense impulses to take drugs.

Substance abuse services are currently offered at HCS to help individuals and families who are seeking to make a change by traveling the road of recovery. Substance abuse services consist of group and/or individual therapy sessions that occur one to three times per week. Group sessions are made up of several tracts for men, women, and adolescents. These tracts focus on a variety of specialty concentrations:

- Relapse prevention planning
- Support system development
- Trauma treatment
- Co-occurring mental health and substance abuse disorder treatment
- Relationship and communication skill building
- Coping skill development
- Anger management

During your initial appointments at HCS, your therapist will ask a lot of questions to help them understand what is going on in your life and how they may be helpful. Your therapist will then work with you to identify your current goals and what steps need to be taken to achieve them. These goals will be used to create a plan of action or treatment plan, which outlines what you and your therapist agree to do together to reach your goals. Each session following the creation of this plan will be focused on taking those agreed-upon steps and at the end of each session, you and your therapist will assess the progress made. Because a high percentage of individuals dealing with substance abuse are also dealing with mental health issues such as, depression, stress, motivation, self-care, anxiety, etc. and can also be addressed and treated at HCS.

HCS also provides Wellness Recovery Action Plans (WRAP) Peer Support Specialists provide services to eligible candidates who are at risk of decompensation because of difficulty understanding stressors and difficulty increasing supports. WRAP services focus on health and safety in eight-week training programs that help prevent crises, but also focus on assisting individuals to build "daily wellness toolkits" that offer hope for a healthy daily routine that can facilitate integrated community citizenship. Services are provided at care coordination offices, assisted living facilities, and the Southwest Virginia Mental Health Institute.

<http://www.mtrogerscsb.com/cornerstone.html>

Cornerstone is a six bed residential crisis stabilization unit that offers short term, subacute services for adult consumers, or "guests". The mission of the program is to provide creative, recovery based crisis stabilization services in a warm and inviting, least restrictive environment that instills education, self-awareness, hope and self-determination as building blocks for change. Guests of the program enter on a voluntary basis and can stay up to a maximum of 15 days. Services are designed for guests with a primary mental health diagnosis, or a co-occurring substance abuse or mental retardation diagnosis. Another function of Cornerstone is to provide a 'step down' feature to reduce the hospital readmission rate by providing a transitional community treatment option to expedite facility discharges.

New Horizons CSU (NRVCS)

7191 Warden Court

Radford, VA 24141

Phone: 540-831-5916

Fax: 540-831-4034

If you need immediate help, call Access at 540-961-8400.

<https://www.nrvcs.org/newhorizons/>

New Horizons is a “Crisis Stabilization Unit,” or CSU, providing crisis-related services both residentially and day-only, depending on the level of risk and need for each individual. The program is available to adults only (18 and older) and we work with individuals who self-identify as male, female, or transgender. Our goal is to stabilize individuals that are at-risk of hospitalization due to a mental health crisis by providing high-quality care in a safe, home-like environment and by mobilizing family and other supports for ongoing recovery.

Individuals may be admitted voluntarily, under a TDO (Temporary Detention Order), or as a step-down or commitment from a psychiatric hospital. Services typically last up to 15 days. During their stay, individuals receive group and individual counseling and case management services, and those with us residentially receive psychiatric services. The program is staffed 24-hours a day/seven days a week and are continually present to support and assist individuals receiving care.

Individuals are eligible to receive services at New Horizons if they are experiencing or exhibiting at least two of the following four criteria due to their crisis:

- Difficulty with relationships to the degree that the person is at increased risk of hospitalization, homelessness, or isolation from social supports.
- Difficulty in daily living activities, such as personal hygiene, preparing food and maintaining adequate nutrition, or managing finances, to a degree that the person's health or safety is jeopardized.
- Doing or saying things that are likely to lead to the mental health, social services, or judicial systems intervening.
- Difficulty thinking to the point the person may be in danger or very socially inappropriate.

Individuals are usually admitted to New Horizons after they have been assessed by a pre-screener with NRVCS' Access Services. This can be arranged by calling Access at 540-961-8400. The Access pre-screener will meet with the individual and speak with any other collateral contacts that may have relevant information. If the Access representative feels New Horizons is an appropriate option for the individual, they will call and coordinate an admission (if a bed is available).

Appalachian Substance Abuse Coalition (ASAC)

<https://stopsubstanceabuse.com/>

The Appalachian Substance Abuse Coalition's mission is to inform and engage our communities to understand, own, and address the epidemic of substance abuse and misuse. The vision of the coalition is to have safe, healthy, and prosperous communities with effective prevention, treatment, recovery, and support resources.

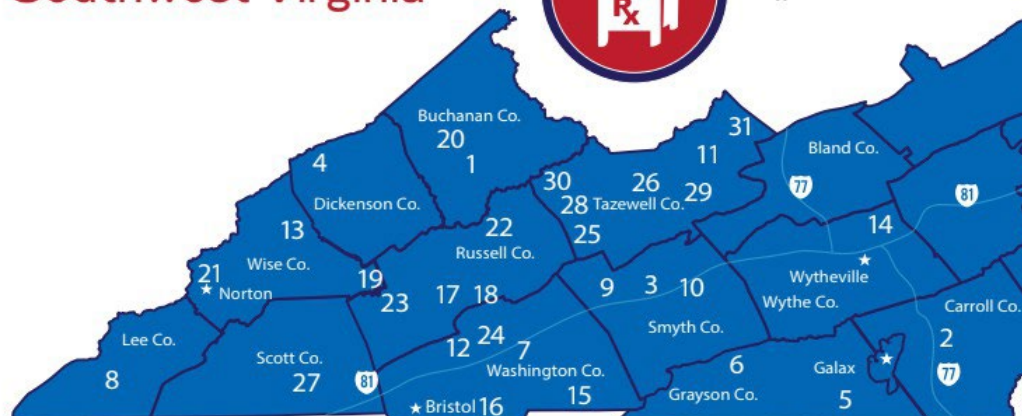

ASAC is an umbrella Coalition that serves as a consortium of ten substance abuse coalitions throughout the Southwest region representing the counties of Bland, Buchanan, Carroll, Dickenson, Grayson, Lee, Russell, Scott, Smyth, Tazewell, Washington, Wise, Wythe and the cities of Bristol, Galax, and Norton.

ASAC evolves and operates through strategic planning to assess and implement strategies which address the substance use problem in SW Virginia. ASAC follows SAMHSA's Strategic Prevention Framework (SPF) planning process for preventing substance use and misuse. The effectiveness of the SPF begins with a clear understanding of community needs and involves community members in all stages of the planning process. The SPF planning process is data driven, requires a team approach and focuses on a population-level of change. Having the SPF system in place ensures that efforts reach all ages.

ASAC has built its capacity of membership to over 200 individuals through strategic planning and training events. Each coalition member is invested in the areas of prevention, treatment, and recovery. ASAC's Membership includes representatives from community service boards, faith based organizations, and social services, and the health care, higher education, schools, law enforcement, law makers, recovery communities and concerned citizens . ASAC serves as a consortium of ten substance abuse coalitions throughout the Southwest region. Project partners are involved in the needs assessment process including the primary stakeholders who administered the process such as collecting data, analyzing data, and reporting data. Website provides listing of resources and events for those seeking recovery.
